

The Endrising

suicide end death

41 0 3

Chapter 1 by N8

Suicide rates were at their highest. 6/10 teens killed themselves by the age of 18. It was unnatural and the human population was decreasing rapidly. The rates would slowly decrease and then increase much more.

Eventually they decided to name this epidemic "The Endrising".

Like the Black Plague, there was no cure and it was spreading around the world.
